Local Author Book Talk

Dylan the Singing Duck:
a children's story, by Stacey Moshier

Thursday, August 15, 7:00 p.m.

Stacey Moshier lives with her husband, son and two cats and began writing this heartwarming story when her own family was moving to a new home, where a family of ducks lived right down the street in a river. She hopes this story will encourage families never to give up on their dreams and to believe in themselves. This picture book is colorfully illustrated and appropriate for young children. Stacey will talk about her experience as a new author. Books will be available for purchase. To register, call 399-1511, ext. 295, or email assistantdirectormmscl@outlook.com. ■

Last Call for Summer Reading Clubs

It's not too late to sign up or complete the summer reading clubs! No matter how old you are, there is a summer reading club with a digging theme for you. You may register and record your reading in person at the library, on the library's website at www.communitylibrary.org, and using your smartphone or other mobile device. Don't miss out on the many prizes and completion celebrations! ■

National Night Out

Tuesday, August 6, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Join us for National Night Out, the nation's night out against crime. Research shows that when neighbors know and look out for each other, crime goes down. Cool off with a night out for the family at the library with arcade style carnival games and a safety fair. Meet local author Joe Galizio (see box), see a real fire truck and more. Community groups like the Community Summit, Tri-Hamlet Day Organizers, St. Andrew's Church Outreach and more will be here to share information about the exciting events they have planned for the fall and how you can get involved.

Welcome Our New Americans: A Dream Come True

On June 2, Assemblyman Fred Thiele, Jr., Brookhaven Town Supervisor Edward P. Romaine and Suffolk County Legislator Kate Browning recognized the achievements of students in the library's literacy program who became United States citizens this past year. If you or someone you know needs information about naturalization, call 399-1511, ext. 220. Citizenship classes begin in September. ■

Local Author Joe Galizio

Joe Galizio is an EMT and volunteers for a local fire department. After being involved in several rescues during which children hid under beds because they were afraid of firefighters dressed in their gear, he decided to write a book to help children know what to do during a fire emergency. Joe will introduce his children's book, Don't Be Afraid. Copies will be available for sale. ■
